Chinese Studies Association of Australia 15th Biennial Conference

Chinese values and counter-values: past and present

Monday 10 – Wednesday 12 July, 2017

Macquarie University, Sydney

Call for Papers

Throughout history, various values have been defined, promoted, contested and defended as distinctively Chinese. The Chinese Studies Association of Australia cordially invites proposals in any area of Chinese Studies for individual or joint papers or for panels. Contributions addressing the analysis of Chinese values, from ancient times to the present, are especially welcome. We look forward to putting together a wide-ranging, multi-disciplinary montage of the best research in Chinese Studies being done both in Australia and overseas.

The conference welcomes presentations in English and Chinese. Abstracts for proposed papers, panel themes and roundtables should not exceed 200 words.

Conference languages: English and Chinese

Closing date for submissions: 28 February, 2017

Please submit your proposal/abstract including paper title, authors' affiliation and contact details, and a short bio (approx. 50 words) or enquiries to conference@csaa.org.au

For further details: <http://www.csaa.org.au/conference/>

The CSAA is the professional association for China specialists and post-graduate students in Australia, and is affiliated with the Asian Studies Association of Australia.
