

Georgetown Journal of
ASIAN AFFAIRS
CALL FOR PAPERS

Georgetown Journal of Asian Affairs is an open access and double-blind peer-reviewed journal published by the Asian Studies Program in the Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service at Georgetown University.

The Journal is currently accepting research manuscripts for Volume 8 (Spring 2022). We welcome submissions from students and scholars. Submissions will be considered on a rolling basis until January 31, 2022. Articles submitted must not be plagiarized, copyrighted, or under review elsewhere. All manuscripts should be 5,000-7,000 words in length.

The Journal welcomes original social science research papers written on issues relevant to politics, security, economy, culture, and society of contemporary Asia, including Pakistan and Afghanistan. Our publication highlights the works of young scholars alongside those of well-established experts, providing a valuable opportunity for graduate students to expand upon their academic portfolio.

Before submitting your manuscript, please visit <https://asianstudies.georgetown.edu/research/publications/gjaa/about-gjaa/> and review our guidelines carefully. For any points not addressed therein, we welcome questions and comments sent to our email (gjaa@georgetown.edu).
